And be it enacted, That if the party so disagreeing, refuse to accept the value of the land so ascertained by the Arbitrators as aforesaid, till the end of the second term in Her Majesty's Court of Queen's Bench, in Canada West, next after the making of the award and tender of the value thereby ascertained, then and in such case, the Directors for the time being, shall be at liberty, and shall have full power to occupy the piece of land so valued by the said Arbitrators, and to Macadamize it in the same manner as other portions of the said Road.

XXV. And be it enacted, That in any action of ejectment, or other action, real, personal, or mixed, for, or on account of such occupation by the said Company, their Servants or Agents, or other person or persons using the said Road, the said award shall and may be pleaded in bar to such action, at any time after the said two terms in the said Court of Queen's Bench, notwithstanding any defect in form or substance in the said award: Provided always, and it is hereby enacted and declared, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the party or parties, interested in the land mentioned in the award, or their Agent, by Counsel, at any time within the two next terms aforesaid, after the same hath been made, and the amount of the value awarded tendered, to move the Court of Queen's Bench, to set aside such award for corruption, or any other matter or thing, for which awards are now subject to be impugned by Law: Provided also, that if the first award be so set aside by the Court of Queen's Bench, the matter in difference may again be submitted to other Arbitrators, and so toties quoties, till a satisfactory award be made between the parties.

XXVI. And whereas the said George Rolph, one of the Petitioners to whom belongs the land the Road is intended to pass over, has already expended a sum of money towards constructing a part of the said Mountain Road, and it is just that he should be paid or otherwise reimbursed, or indemnified for the same; and the said George Rolph is willing to accept Stock in the amount of his expenditure as aforesaid: Be it therefore enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the said George Rolph, to subscribe for as many Shares of Stock, as may (at the rate before mentioned for each Share) be equal in value to the said lands, and the work thereon performed, according to an estimation thereof to be made by competent persons, and approved by the said Directors as just; the limitation hereinbefore made of twenty Shares, as the maximum of Stock for which any one individual is permitted to subscribe, within the ninety days of the first opening of the Books of Subscription as aforesaid, to the contrary notwithstanding.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That in case it should at any time happen, that an election of Directors should not be made on the day, when pursuant to this Act, it ought to have been made, the said Corporation shall not for that cause be deemed to be dissolved, but it shall and may be lawful on any other day to hold and make an election, in such manner as shall have been regulated by the Rules of the said Corporation, to be made for that purpose, such Rules not being contrary to the provisions of this Act.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Directors, to make annual Dividends of so much of the profit of the said Company, as to them, or the majority of them, shall appear advisable; and once in every three years, (and oftener if required by a majority of the votes of the Stockholders, at a General Meeting to be called for that purpose), an exact and particular statement shall be rendered of the state of their Affairs, Credits, and its Profits and Losses; and such triennial statement shall appear on the Books of the Company, and be open to the perusal of any Stockholder, upon his reasonable request.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and as such shall be judicially noticed by all Judges and Justices of the Peace, and other persons, without being specially pleaded.

XXX. And be it enacted, That this Act from the time of the passing thereof, shall continue in force for fifty years, and from thence to the then next ensuing Session of the Provincial Parliament, at which time the Estate, Rights, Titles, Tolls, and Rates of the said Road, shall vest in Her Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors, to and for the public uses of this Province, unless it be otherwise provided by an Act of the Legislature, to be for that purpose at any time hereafter enacted, or unless the said Road become so vested at an earlier period by the operation of the Sinking Fund aforesaid.
